BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., November 28, 1891.

Superintendent Mint U.S.,

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Sir:

I will thank you to inform me what will be the cost of striking 25,000 bronze medals for the Columbian Exposition, the same to be about three inches in diameter. Your estimate should be based upon the actual cost of the material and labor, as it is not contemplated that the Government should realize any profit in striking these medals, but simply be reimbursed for the actual outlay.

Respectfully yours,

E. O. Leech

Director of the Mint.
